

Tagetes lemmonii — Copper Canyon Daisy

Hardiness Zones:

USDA Zone 8 (10 °F) to

USDA Zone 10 (30 °F)

Height:

Grows 4-6' tall and 4' wide. Space 3' apart.

Exposure:

Plant in Full Sun.

Bloom Time:

Blooms Late Summer to Fall.

Water Requirements:

Water 2-3 times per week until established. Prefers a well drained soil.

★ Features: ★

Tagetes lemmonii is a large plant that reaches up to 6 feet, with very aromatic, airy foliage and vibrant yellow daisy-like blooms. Copper Canyon Daisy is a daylight sensitive plant and will bloom only during short-day seasons, making it good for fall and early spring color, and will go dormant in the winter.